

Scholarship Toolkit

Outside scholarships are an excellent supplemental source of financial aid to help cover remaining costs after financial aid from your school. Learn more below!

Key facts

Outside scholarships....

- Are private sources of financial aid.
- Usually require an application - separate from FAFSA - and sometimes require an essay
- Are offered by national corporations/institutions, local businesses, community-based organizations, and private foundations.
- Have varying deadlines. Check early and often during your search process!
- Can usually be applied to any school, but some have restrictions.

Scholarship search tips

Assemble the pieces needed for applications

- Two or more letters of recommendation from non-family adults who know you well, such as teachers, counselors, coaches, and supervisors.

Official high school transcript (or college transcript if you are a current college student).

Search local scholarships first

- Find scholarships from your city, state, or region.
 - Your school, neighborhood, community organization, employer, or place of worship may have scholarships they sponsor.

Find scholarships that fit you

- Check requirements for GPA, neighborhood of residence, ethnicity, family income, and leadership or volunteer experience.
