Course Description:

Students in World Geography Studies examine people, places, and environments at local, regional, national, and international scales. Students describe the influence of geography on events of the past and present with emphasis on contemporary issues. A significant portion of the course centers around the geographical, political, economic, and social processes that shape cultural patterns of regions; the distribution and movement of the world population.

Year Overview:

- Geographical Influences- First Nine Weeks (August 26 - October 25)
- Civic Influences- Second Nine Weeks (October 28 - December 20)
- Cultural Influences- Third Nine Weeks (January 7 - March 6)
- Modern Citizenship- Fourth Nine Weeks (March 9 - June 5)

Workshop Day/Time:

Workshop will take place on Tuesdays from 3:30 through 4:05.
