School-Parent Compact

Young Women's Leadership Academy and the parents of students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement. This compact also outlines the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the state's high standards Public Law 114-95 Section 1116.

Required School-Parent Compact Provisions

School Responsibilities

As staff members of your child's school, we will:

- Provide high quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables your daughter the ability to meet the state's student academic achievement standards.
- Provide a supportive and effective learning environment that enables children to meet the State's academic achievement standards by providing afterschool workshops and small group instruction.
- Conduct multiple opportunities for parent-teacher conferences to discuss your daughter's achievement. Parent-teacher conferences will also be held upon request of the teacher(s), parent(s), administration, or guidance.
- Provide copies of your daughter's progress through 3 weeks reports and 9 weeks report cards as well as through our Parent Home Access Center.
- Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Ensure that staff is available for consultation with parents as follows: during their planning period, scheduled parent-teacher conferences, through email or phone during their normal scheduled hours.
- Provide assessment assistance sessions for parents, family members and students.
- Provide a safe and positive environment for learning.
