

School and Parent Compact

Strong parental participation can and should be one of the driving forces behind school initiatives, programs or reform. With the belief that parents must have an active role in any decision involving their child, Ysleta ISD is committed to providing the strongest partnership possible. The following parent, student, and school roles clearly define this partnership.

Student Responsibilities:

- I will learn with a growth mindset
- I will complete my assignments on time.
- I will study notes and read for all exams.
- I will communicate with my teachers and parents.
- I will prioritize my schoolwork, extra-curricular activities, and personal life.

Campus Responsibilities:

- Parental and community input will be solicited through meetings, at various levels, regarding the education of all students.
- Campus will offer flexible scheduling of parent meetings, training sessions, assemblies and school functions to maximize parent participation.
- Parents will be notified of school events in a timely, efficient manner through campus calendar given to students at the beginning of the month
- Teachers will communicate individual student accomplishments as well as areas of concern to parents.
- The school building will be used to foster the growth and advancement of the community.
- Campus will convey instructional initiatives to parents and school-wide meetings and parent conferences.
- Campus will assist with the interpretation of results of district and state mandated tests.

Parent Responsibilities:

- As an involved parent, I will support my child/children by ensuring that they attend school daily and arrive to school on time.
- I will create a quiet workplace for my child/children to complete homework assignments.
- I will volunteer and participate in school functions.
- I will support functions that take place outside the school setting and the community.
- I will encourage my child to participate in extracurricular activities.
- I will seek information regarding my child/children's progress by conferring with teachers and campus administrators.
- I will attend parent conferences.
- I will expect my children to abide by all school rules.
- I will be responsive to teacher requests and will discuss my concerns regarding my/child children to abide by all school rules.
- I will communicate the importance of education by setting high expectations for my child. As an involved parent, I will support my child/children by ensuring that they attend school daily and arrive to school on time.
- I will have contact information for myself and all emergency contacts entered on my child's online enrollment form and will ensure it is updated throughout the school year as needed.
